

April 19th, 2018 Pickleball Clinics

In an effort to assist the Boys & Girls Club, Endicott with their Annual Fundraiser Pickleball Tournament initiatives, IPTPA Certified Teaching Professional “Z”orano Tubo is teaming up with The Chavez Family to Host an Introduction to Pickleball Clinic, and a “Next Level” Pickleball Clinic. These Clinics will be run by Seasoned Pickleball Veteran and Empire State Games “Gold Medalist Jorge Chavez and new kid on the block “Z”orano Tubo.

Thursday, April 19th 9am to 12 noon.

Beginners Clinic 9am to 10:30

Next Level Clinic 10:31am To 12 Noon

Proceeds to Benefit the Boys And Girls Club, Endicott, NY.
$15 to Register. $10 for Seniors Over 55, First Responders, and Military Veterans. Both Clinics

Are limited to 25 participants. Call the Boys and Girls Club, Endicott 607-754-0225 to register. You must pay at the club or by phone to be placed on the registered list. Thank you for your Support.

What you Will learn in the Intro/Beginner Clinic 1st half

What paddle should I use? How do I hold the paddle?

Court Etiquette

The Rules (What’s “In”, What’s “Out”)

How to Keep Score

Posture and Positioning at the Net

The Lob Serve (How to use it)

The Lob Serve (How to defend against it)

REMEMBER: NEVER RUN BACKWARDS....

What you will learn in the Intro/Beginner Clinic 2nd half

An Overview, review of the 1st half

How to Dink

Where you should be standing when Opponents are hitting the ball

Get to the Line

Basic Strategy (When to come in, when to move back)

Power vs Placement

Whose ball is it